

2012 Texas Sample Topics

- Texas Ranchers' Reaction to Barbed Wire
- The Fredonia Rebellion: Prelude to a Revolution
- Oil Discoveries (1901 Spindletop or the East Texas Oil Field 1930s) Transform the Texas Economy
- Charlie Wilson and Afghanistan: Funding a Revolt Against Communism
- Big Thicket: A New Approach to Preserving Biodiversity
- Outdoor Recreation & Land Conservation – Development of the Texas Parks & Wildlife Department
- Reforming Capital Punishment In Texas
- Central Texas Indian Tribes Fight for Freedom
- Early Slavery In Texas: Decades Between 1820 And 1850
- The Battle of Medina: A Tragic End to a Failed Revolt
- Diez & Seis: Remembering the First Revolution that Set Texas Free
- Immigration Reform: The Law of April 6, 1830
- The Battle of Gonzales: Where Does a Revolution Begin?
- Texas' and Mexico's Reactions to the Siege of the Alamo
- The Great Society: LBJ's Social Reforms
- Formalizing a Revolution: The Texas Declaration for Independence
- One Man's Revolution for His Rights: Hernandez v. Texas
- Mary Kay's Revolutionary Enterprise
- King Ranch Reacts to the Tick Infestation
- A Federal Program and A State's Reaction: The CCC & Texas
- A Reformer and Revolutionary: Barbara Jordan
- Changing Education in Texas: The Crystal City Walkout
- Lady Bird's Reforms for Highway Beautification and Beyond
- Galveston Seawall: A Community's Reaction to Tragedy
- Leading the Organ Transplant Revolution: Dr. DeBakey
- Reforming School Finance: Edgewood vs Kirby
- Michael Dell Changes the Computer Industry
- Texas A&M Reacts to Coeducation
- Sweatt v. Painter: Reforming Law School Admissions
- Ross Perot's Efforts to Reform Texas Education
- Cesar Chavez and Migrant Workers: Working for Reform
- The Civil Rights Bill of 1964
- Reforming Healthcare: Medicare and Medicaid
- Housing for All: LBJ and the Fair Housing Act
- WWII Japanese Internment Camps in Texas
- Reaction to Revolution: The Runaway Scrape
- Wet or Dry? Alcohol Reform in Texas
- Civil Rights: The 1956 Segregation Struggle at Mansfield High School
- Against the Will of the People: Sam Houston and the Secession Conflict
- Agrarian Revolt: The Texas Farmers' Alliance
- Texan Reaction to the Emancipation Proclamation