

Links to facilitate Post-Secondary Enrollment and College Funding Sources:

- www.collegeboard.com (Information about SAT registration, test preparation and the college admissions process)
- www.act.org (Information about ACT registration, test preparation and the college admissions process)
- www.march2success.com (Prepare for SAT/ACT with free online practice exam as well as helpful hints)
- www.collegefortexans.com (Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board website that provides students/parents with college planning information in English/Spanish as well as the ability to apply for admissions, scholarships and financial aid at website)
- www.petersons.com (Allows students to explore college options)
- www.collegeview.com (Free scholarship, financial aid and career information as well as university profiles)
- www.fafsa.ed.gov (Department of Education website to file electronically for financial aid using the FAFSA-Free Application for Federal Student Aid)
- www.pin.ed.gov (Department of Education website where students/parents obtain their FAFSA pin number)
- www.finaid.org (Free resource for information and tools about financial aid)
- www.fastweb.com (Free college scholarship and financial aid search)
- www.scholarship.com (Free scholarship matching service)

